

Three body problem with different M_j values

